WELCOME TO OUR BLOG!

Dear friends,

Welcome to our brand new Divine Exchange Blog! We are so glad that you are here. As many of you know already, one of our greatest joys as a company is to meet with the Lord in that place of prayer, on behalf of others who are seeking to do His will and fulfill the assignments God has given them in the most exciting places and ways, all over the world!

As we meet with Him our hearts are touched and transformed, our faith increases, and our spiritual eyes renewed. We are honoured by the things He reveals to us in that place of prayer, and are constantly inspired afresh by the wisdom and grace He releases.

Our goal here on the pages of this blog, is to share with you some of the keys, revelations and insights God has released each month – many are specific to certain circumstances and situations – but much can apply to all situations and may be a tool or a key that will help you with what you are walking through.

We have one of the best teams in the world – you will hear their hearts in the words written here and catch a glimpse of the tremendous fruit from the times spent with the One they love so well.

In addition to that, as is the case this month, you may also here from those blessed to work with such an amazing team – our Directors – Dennis and Katie Wiedrick, Ralph and me.

We would love to hear from you – if you found these keys helpful, the words encouraging or the posts beneficial. We are here for you – to bless you, to support you, to cheer you on in all that you are doing. Most of all we are here for Him – the One Who makes it all worthwhile!

Blessings to you and enjoy!

DECEMBER POSTING

Recently our team gathered together for a time of prayer and intercession for the nation of Israel. We were honoured to accept this call to prayer birthed out of some specific revelation the Lord had given Dennis, regarding Israel's call as a nation to release other nations. It was a powerful time of prayer.

That night, somewhere in the middle of the night in a semi-awake state, I became acutely aware of the blessing of God being very near almost as a tangible substance - and they were chasing me. Because I was not quite awake, it felt a little like a dream, but I knew that I was being pursued by blessings and that they were going to catch me.

I was running but not like someone who really wanted to get away, just the fun of the chase when you know you are going to get caught and it was going to be good. I could feel myself giggling almost, with joy at being chased, and by being chased by blessings.

I knew that the blessings were going to catch up and overtake me – that God was determined to bless us and we were not going to be able to escape these blessings. How wonderful is that!

I felt that these blessings were the kindness of God released to us after the prayer time that we had, and as soon as the blessings caught up with me and overtook me I began to release them to others – over our families, our team and you!

So that is our prayer for you, this month of December and at the beginning of our new adventures together in the world of blogs – that the blessings of God, right from the Father's heart would chase you. That not only would they chase you, but that they would overtake you, and that your life, and the lives of all of those whom you are connected to, would be overtaken with the blessings of the Lord as well.

Every day and in every way – we pray that it would be so!

Thanks for sharing these few moments with us today. See you next month!
